

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Stephanie Jenks. I am a 20 year old voter and United States citizen and I listen to my Christian Radio Station every day, in particular, KLOVE 90.7 FM.

I am commenting on behalf of this Christian radio station and on behalf of all the other Christian radio stations around the country. As a KLOVE listener, I am greatly concerned that the different rules and regulations that you are currently discussing may cause several unwanted and unnecessary hurdles for Christian radio, or even silence Christian radio forever... THIS IS NOT RIGHT!

Everyday, I get into my car and turn it on to hear the radio blasting positive music. When I listen to it, I feel like I can take on the day. I do not feel depressed after listening to a short newscast, but encouraged. Every time I turn on the radio, there is someone calling in to thank KLOVE for being on the radio and that he/she appreciates the ministry that they have. I have heard of people deciding to quit drugs because of something one of the radio personalities said and a song that came on. My parents listen to KLOVE, almost all of my friends listen to KLOVE, my husband and I listen to KLOVE, and we support KLOVE monthly.

I would ask you to consider what you are doing, I would ask you to think about the effects of your decision and the impact it will have on this nation. Christian radio stations, not just KLOVE, have a deep impact on the people of this country, and some of your decisions could have a negative effect on Christian radio forever. My question to you is, why would you put so much regulation on Christian Radio if it is simply "positive and encouraging?" there is enough negativity in this world, and KLOVE only broadcasts news reports that are positive. Why make it more difficult for them to broadcast?

Furthermore, this is our expression of our rights. The First Amendment allows us the freedom of speech, the freedom of the press, AND the freedom of religion. I ask that you would continue to allow us to exercise our freedoms that were so dearly paid for so long ago.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Jenks
